THE CATALOG FOR STAMP ENTHUSIASTS

Dear Stamp Enthusiast:

Instead of just meeting the expectations of stamp enthusiasts, USA Philatelic wants to exceed them. That is why the Fall/Winter 1996 edition has several changes from the premier issue you received earlier this year.

You will note that the catalog now uses a simplified design to clearly and concisely provide the important technical information that serious collectors need. We have also made this information easier to read through the use of lines to guide your eye across the page.

The previous edition of USA Philatelic included a comprehensive listing of recent stamp issues. Instead of duplicating all that information, this edition features our newest stamp issues, such as the exotic Endangered Species stamps, the jazzy Big Band Leaders & Songwriters issues and the colorful self-adhesive Riverboats stamps. Plus you will get advanced notice on stamps and products that will soon be going off sale. Another comprehensive edition of USA Philatelic will be sent to you at the beginning of next year.

And do not forget, the holidays are fast approaching. The 1995 and 1996 Commemorative Collections featured on the back cover make excellent gifts and can be a great way to share your interest in stamp collecting with family and friends.

So enjoy the new stamp issues, and from all of us at USA Philatelic, have a safe and happy holiday season.

Sincerely,

Azeezaly S. Jaffer
Manager, Stamp Services
U.S. Postal Service

READERS' FORUM

QUESTION: I am a regular customer and I have received both the Stamps Etc. and the USA Philatelic catalogs. Can you tell me why there are two different catalogs?

ANSWER: For 1996, our mail-order catalogs have been undergoing some significant changes. The "one-size-fits-all" Stamps Etc. catalog was no longer meeting the needs of all our customers, so it was essentially divided into two publications. Stamps Etc. was retained but completely redesigned to appeal to our newer customers and the more "casual" collectors, while USA Philatelic was created to serve the needs of the more serious collectors, which includes much of our customer list and many of our long-time customers. Such an effort has not been without a few "growing pains," but the result should become more apparent in 1997.

For the record, our customer mailings this year have included: a 1996 new issue poster and promotional folder (featuring January stamps) in January; Stamps Etc. (No. 1) in February; an update flyer (featuring March and April stamps) in April; USA Philatelic (Spring 1996) in May (sent to more than half the mail-order customer list); Stamps Etc. (Summer 1996) in August (all customers received one of two versions); and this holiday edition of either Stamps Etc. or USA Philatelic.

The next issue of USA Philatelic is being planned for release sometime in January 1997, and it will be a comprehensive edition. As currently planned, the first issue each year will be a comprehensive listing of all available stamps and products, with subsequent issues serving as supplements and announcements of new issues, products and items scheduled to go off sale. We plan to communicate with customers at least every two or three months, and many customers will be hearing from us almost monthly.
